

BEANIE MAJOR, 28

Listen up, chaps. Not to set feminism back 50 paces, but Beanie (of jewellery blog In Detail) is the expert to call when you're after a push present (the sparkly trinket you buy when your other half has pushed out a baby). 'Men call me and say they have £15,000 to spend, what should they buy,' she says. Something that makes up for the stinging, we think. ▷
